night, for the purpose of nominating new candidates for Chief Engineer. The election is to be held on Memorial Day in the City Hall.

The Department held an election several weeks ago. Bribery was charged and an investigation was held by the Board of Alderment. This body found there had been tribery, force and intimidation on the part of both factions.

The selection of Chief Astraik was therefore declared liegal. It was shown that voters had been refused entrance to polling places, and that others had received money for their votes.

This state of affairs is nothing new to the city, as the firemen's elections for several years have been conducted in this manner. In view of this fact the Council passed a resolution ordering the manner of election changed. In the past each company has held an election in its house, and the votes have been sent to the City Clerk to be counted. In the future the polls will be in the office of the City Clerk. All firemen wishing to vote must go there to deposit their ballots. It is probable that the eld rivals who contested the election three weeks ago will be remominated.
